COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT AND LICENSE TO EURO-IX

By submitting materials for the Euro-IX Film Competition "The Internet Revealed", the submitter acknowledges that s/he is authorized to enter into this agreement, either as the Author or with the permission of her/his employer if the work is considered a "work made for hire" or otherwise owned by the institution. The Author represents and warrants that the Work is original to Author and does not infringe upon any copyright, proprietary right, or any other right whatsoever of any party and that Author owns the copyright to the Work and has made no agreements inconsistent with the present agreement. Author further represents and warrants that to the best of Author's knowledge the Work contains no matter that is scandalous, obscene, or libelous or otherwise contrary to law. Author agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Euro-IX against any and all claims, suits and/or judgments, including costs, expenses, damages, and legal fees based upon publication of the Work by Euro-IX and/or by reason of a breach of any of the foregoing warranties.

Author hereby acknowledges and agrees that Euro-IX has the right to make the Work available in print or electronic form through Euro-IX's information services, including mounting a copy of the Work on the Euro-IX's and its members' Web servers and producing CD's, and grants permission for the Work to be included in course packs for educational, noncommercial purposes without seeking further Author approval.
