> IXP Database Project

There are many IXP Databases...

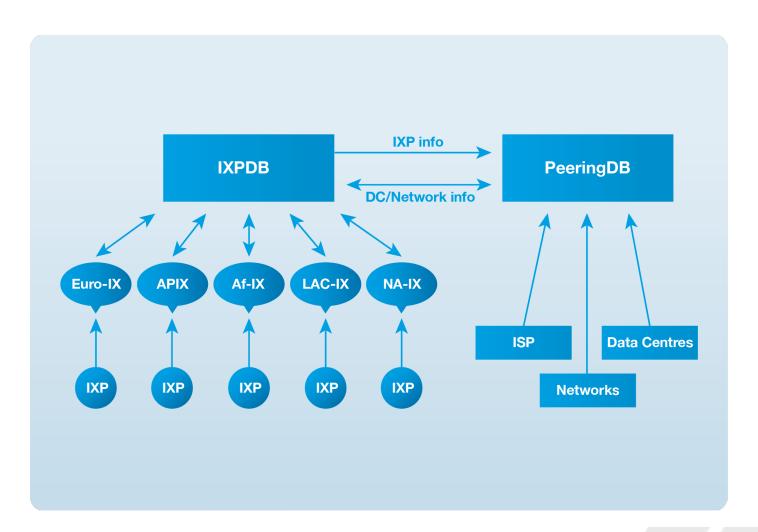

> Existing database issues

- No single trusted data source
- Poor quality & no or very little APIs / automation
- "We'll only peer with you, if you're in PeeringDB"
- Databases are updated manually
- We're moving into a world of automation
- …IXPs hold accurate information but lack automation

> End Goal

> IX-F Database

IX-F DB API server written using Python / Django, which can:

- get / create / update / delete IXP, organisation, IP addressing and network information
- all interaction is JSON
- all non-sensitive information will be publicly available

> IXP Database

- We have a proof of concept client to interact with this database in Python including unit test code at: https://github.com/euro-ix/ixf-client-py
- The PHP version of this with unit tests also available at: https://github.com/euro-ix/ixf-client-php

Hello Serge,

as discussed on the phone, BNIX will be represented at the 2nd Euro-IX forum by:

Ms. Edina Beylemans (edina@bnix.net)

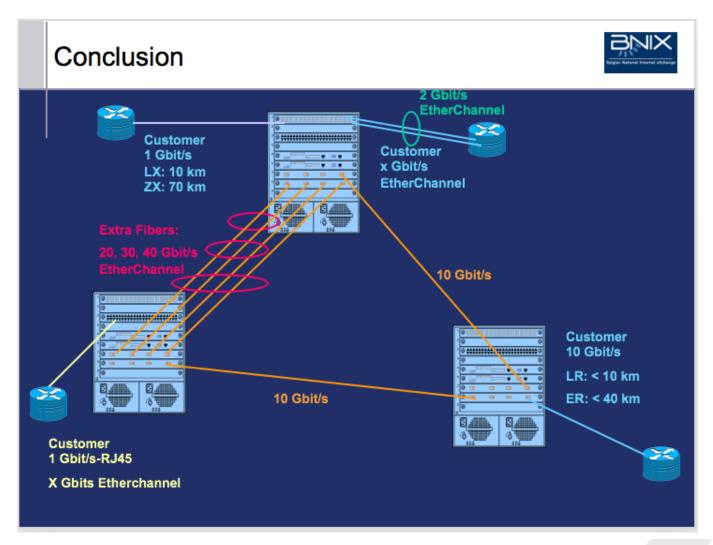

Mr. Pascal Panneels (pascal@belnet.be)

BNIX History BNIX was founded end 1995, by BELNET. 6 participants Infrastructure, based on a Cisco Router Connection speed: up to 256 Kbit/s AS2686 1 location : BELNET As the number of participants grow and bandwidth demands increased, the router was replaced by a layer 2 Ethernet switch end 1996. In 1999, BNIX introduced the exchange of IP multicast traffic (MBNIX). In 2000, BNIX became open for IPv6 interconnections (BNIX6).

BNIX - History To meet the increasing bandwidth requirements, a new infrastructure, based on Catalyst 6500 switches was implemented, in 2003. (IOS) > The switching capacity went up Switching capacity from 32 Gbit/s to 720 Gbit/s. 720 Gbit/s Level(3) Dark Fiber The backbone capacity was Backbone interxion upgraded from 1Gbit/s to 10 Gbit/s 10Gbit/s (LR/ER). > Fast convergence at failure of a backbone link (sub seconds), RSTP. New services: 1000 Base-LX, SMF > Future services: 10Gig LR : 1000 Base-TX, UTP : 10Gig ER

> BNIX hosts 16th Euro-IX Forum

Volcano erupts in south Iceland

An Icelandic volcano, dormant for 200 years, has erupted, ripping a 1km-long fissure in a field of ice.

What did this mean for the forum?

- It still went ahead, with great attendance..
- Update from Serge SERGE'S NERVES: are no longer existent and the BNIX/BELNET team have reported something similar (however they have been absolutely marvellous!!)

Continued Support

- Taking part in the BMC for the past 10 years...
- Actively involved at the Euro-IX forums, giving presentations, active on panels and starting the selfie on stage phenomenon!!

Thank you!
